The ANNUAL MEETING of the Delaware County Historical Society will be held at the Society's Library at Widener University on Sunday, September 18, 1983, at 1:00 PM. Our featured speaker will be DEBORA MAYER of Conservation Center for Art and Historic Artifacts. Her topic, related to her field as a paper conservator, will be PRESERVING FAMILY RECORDS AND ARTIFACTS AT HOME. All members are invited and are encouraged to bring guests. Note: our meeting will end in time for attendance at the Institute of Science function the same day.

UPCOMING MEETING

We have received the following letter from David Culver, President, Salem County Historical Society, 79-83 Market Street, Salem, New Jersey 08079. Headquarters, Library, and Museum, Alexander Grant House, Built 1721

Dear Friends,

Our Annual Dinner Meeting will be held this year on October 14 at the Centerton Golf Club. We would appreciate a mention of the event in your newsletter, and would certainly be pleased if some of your members would like to attend.

Our program will feature the well known appraiser Lawrence Gichner. His talk is entitled "What Are Your Antiques Worth - An Appraisal Clinic of Antiques and Art Objects." Participants are encouraged to join in the fun by bringing an object for Mr. Gichner to identify and appraise.

Those wishing to attend should make their reservations by writing the Salem County Historical Society. Cost of the dinner is $16.00 per person. Note that to save postage, we do not mail out tickets, but instead add names to an attendance list. Also, we do not reserve tables, so if a group prefers to sit together, they should plan to arrive early.

It should be an enjoyable evening.

Sincerely yours, David Culver, President, Salem County Historical Society

A WORD FROM THE EDITOR Donald Walter Powell

This is the second issue of the Bulletin to be produced under my direction. I typed it myself on an IBM Executive typewriter, and the reproduction was by xerox.

For their help in the creation and the production of this issue, I would like to thank the following:

Sandy Bullock, for her perpetual interest in collecting and writing material, and for pointing out to me items which might be of interest to our readers.

Joe Edgette and Nancy Webster, for their kind offer to help in any way with production.

Mrs. Grab of the Widener Media Center, for her unfailing good cheer and assistance in the production of photographs.

Scholarly articles concerning the history and art of Delaware County in general or of its 49 municipalities are welcome, as are reunion notices and historical notices of all kinds. These should be submitted to the Editor, and must be accompanied by the name and address and telephone number of the contributor.
